Pastor's Report

It's been a year of good work and hard transitions.

From the pulpit, we've worked through themes of resilience and growth. Following last Advent we considered the gifts of Epiphany that endure beyond Christmas. Soon after, we investigated the frailty that exists within our lived reality, and how God might use the brokenness that hasten our redemption. Breaking pots each week provided a visual metaphor to drive home the spoken Word. As summer began, we started a ten week sermon series using classic novels as a unifying thread. We parsed hints of the Gospel in great works of fiction and the human imagination's reaching for a savior. Over a week of Study Leave in July, I planned two possible years of sermons: one that provided for a deep dive in the life of Paul and one that severely abridged that track in favor of a wider thematic selection. In conversation with the Session, the deep study of Acts and Paul, so we started with a five week survey of Saul's conversion and his first missionary journey. We followed that with a four week study of Revelation, before beginning the season of Advent. I am particularly pleased with the joy cultivated from our study of the Christmas story in the series I called "Making Merry." I came up with the idea of using party games liturgically, with the winner getting a present and to light the day's Advent Candle; it added an element of surprise, participation, and delight to each service.

Late in the spring, I oversaw the hiring of a new secretary, Lisa Oakes, and, with a lot of help from Scott Risner, have been helping her to acclimate to this new role and learn how to best serve us. In May, I finished my year serving as Moderator of the Presbytery and was offered the chance to serve as the Chair of the Presbytery's Leadership Council. Concerned for the extra amount of time it would take from my work here locally and from my family, I politely declined, but did accept a seat on the Leadership Council so I'm still able to serve the Presbytery in a way that fits better with our needs here. I continued to run the Sermon Back & Forth meetings for much of the year, taking a break for the summer, as usual. Because of my experience leading this group, I was invited to share at a seminar the synod held for pastors and ruling elders called "Getting Helpful Feedback" on worship leadership. I've spent some time this fall mentoring another pastor in our presbytery. As part of my own tracking, I've also documented over thirty hours per week in the office. Please do feel free to come by and chat!

A delight from earlier this year was receiving the following email from a parent after our Easter Egg Hunt: "I just wanted to reach out and thank you again for putting on the Easter Egg hunt at the park. We are new foster parents and have recently received our first placement of kids. It was so nice to be able to bring the boys somewhere that was simple and to the point without overwhelming them. I loved the empty tomb lesson using the empty paper towel roll. The boys enjoyed their candy, cookies, and juice as well. Thanks again for doing such a great job." After years of serving our community in this way, I'm glad we're still doing good work in serving our neighbors.

Personnel Report

Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

~ 1 Corinthians 15:58

In 2022, we hired Lisa Oakes in April for our secretary position. The 4 paid employees are: Minister-Pastor Ben Beres (12 years), Treasurer-Joyce Gordon (14 years), Custodian-Lori Zarnosky (8 years), Secretary-Lisa Oakes (8 months). The secretary position was temporarily filled by Scott Risner until Lisa was hired.

The roles and responsibilities for the Pastor and Secretary were used to evaluate performance throughout the year.

All participated in a self-evaluation process. As a part of the evaluation process each employee assesses the areas that are rewarding, challenging, the objectives of the position and areas that need assistance.

Worship Team

My name is Tony Ganson, and I was elected to the session in January 2022. I met with a former worship team session member to understand the role. Items discussed included summer music, making sure we had someone to play piano or organ, making sure we had Lay Readers for each Sunday. In April I started contacting people/groups to see if they would like to sing for us. The following are the summer special music dates:

Piano - Anthony Zamora – Huber Heights, May 15, 22, 29 June 5, 19, 26, July 3, 17, Aug 7
Aryn Forsythe – Huntsville, July 10, Aug 14, 28

Susan Young – Huntsville, Aug 21

Organ – Jean Ann McLaughlin – Cincinnati, June 12, July 24, 31

Harps – Jillian and Josephine Davis – Bellefontaine, July 31

Vocalist – Belle Elliott – DeGraff, June 26

Majesty (Rob Kilgore, Ward McBrian, Tim Walls) DeGraff, July 10

Lindsey Bodi – Indian Lake area, July 17, Aug 14

Shannon Reames – Lewistown, July 24

Bob Fultz – Bellefontaine (played his CD) Aug 7

Friends of God Trio (Pat Holt, Karol Rader, Nadine Tussing ) DeGraff, Aug 21

Chanteurs – (Shawn Tours) (Shirley McPherson, Beth Kurtz, and Peg Swonguers), Aug 28

Pastor/Speaker - Michelle Sloan – Urbana, covered Pastor Ben on Study leave, June 5

Guest Speaker - Brian Holder, business man from Indian Lake area, June 12

Pastor – Jeffrey A. Schooley – Urbana (Pastor Ben positive Covid) June 19

Pastor – Linda Niece Tipp City, our guest pastor when Pastor Ben was on vacation Oct 23

I was asked to find a cabinet in memory of Mable Watt where church items could be displayed. I went to a local Amish store and ordered the agreed upon one. A plaque was engraved for the family and it was installed on the cabinet.

We were having trouble getting Lay Readers with the current set up being a monthly commitment. I started asking members if the idea of a week at a time would work better and decided to try it. Things were going well so I made a new sign up for 2023 for a week at a time for Lay Readers, Greeters, and Fellowship.

I designed a home bound communion serving tray to be utilized with home visits.

Other supported activities,

- Attended monthly sessions meetings
- Attended and supported Back & Forth meetings
- Served church communion
- Collected offering
- Sunday morning greeter along with my wife
- Visited home bound members
- Served communion to home bound members
- Supported Halloween parking lot for kids
- Supported after church snacks & fellowship

Finance Committee

Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. Command them to do good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so they may take hold of life that is truly life.
~ 1 Timothy 6:17-19

The church finances decreased in 2022 for both the general fund and the investment accounts. The general fund account decreased by 44% ($22,488) and the investment accounts decreased 3.1% ($15,979). The overall finances have decreased 6.9% ($38,467) due to the lower donations and negative returns on the investments.

In our annual review with Dodds Wealth Advisors for our 2 investments accounts, we decided not to change the funds since both investments are low risk and have had good returns in previous years.

The financial audit for 2021 was completed. Thank you to Matt Zarnosky for helping with the audit.

Daily Bread of Indian Lake 2022

Daily Bread of Indian Lake was closed from January until the end of May. We opened our doors on June 2 with just board members manning the operation to see if it would be viable to serve meals again. We had enough people wanting a good hot meal and a place to socialize that we started in July with our churches participating. Our number of diners has remained consistent between 20 to 30. Everyone appreciates our re-opening. Our donations have remained steady. We are still competing with the monthly countywide food delivery trucks so our numbers aren't as high as we would like. But we feel that we are meeting a need.

Thank you to everyone who continues to support Daily Bread by donating food and providing help to serve the meals on the second Tuesday of each month. Visiting with the people who are enjoying a home cooked meal is a plus for anyone who comes to help. Consider coming to help serve.

Expenses include food purchased from Second Harvest Food Bank in Springfield and local grocery stores, non-perishables (soap and toilet paper) purchased from grocery stores, rent for our space in the Russells Point Municipal Building, and liability insurance. Recently we have also had to purchase some staple food items such as soup, macaroni and cheese, cereal, Raman noodles and peanut butter from the grocery stores.

Volunteers are always needed, too! Stop by during distribution hours to see how the pantry works. We have a great group and would welcome new helpers.

UCS Food Pantry provides more than 3 days of food per person at each visit. Recipients may visit the pantry once per month. The pantry provides hams at Easter and Christmas and turkeys at Thanksgiving. During the 2022 our donations have remained steady.

UCS Food Pantry wishes to thank everyone for their financial and food contributions. Many people in our area need help to provide nutritious food for themselves and their families. Without you, we would not be able to continue this outreach.

- Financial donations may be mailed to P.O. Box 56, Russells Point, OH 43348.
- Food donations may be dropped off at the pantry during distributions hours. (12:00 pm to 3:00 pm, 2nd and 4th Thursdays of each month.).
- The pantry is located in the rear portion of the Russells Point Municipal Building.
- The food pantry is open two times a month on the second and fourth Thursday from 12 until 2.
- Food is delivered from Second Harvest on the Wednesday before we are open. If you would like to help unload deliveries or working at the pantry, please contact Joyce Gordon.
- THANK YOU to everyone who donates food items to the pantry. A basket is in the foyer for the items.
